

Scholarship Application Form

Background and Purpose:

Mrs. Dianne Williams Smith was born February 11, 1937 in Gainesville, FL. She later graduated in 1955 from Holmes County High School and went on to earn a Bachelor's Degree in Education from Florida State University. Dianne eventually married Orren R. Smith of Greenwood, Florida in 1961 and they soon moved back from Atlanta, GA to Dianne's hometown of Bonifay. Alongside her husband, she helped run the Holmes County Advertiser until 1981 when they sold the paper. Orren went to law school and she went back into teaching. She taught English and Humanities at Vernon High School and Holmes County High School; she retired in 2000. Mrs. Smith passed away in September 2017. A group of her former students from the Holmes County High School Class of 1994, her children and grandchildren, and members of the Bonifay Woman's Club in which she was very active in, wanted to honor her memory by creating this annual scholarship. It is their desire to award $500 to a member of each senior class who excels in English and exhibits the standard of writing skills always expected from those who entered into and graduated from Mrs. Smith's classroom.

Amount of Scholarship:

For the Holmes County High School Class of 2024, one $500 minimum scholarship will be awarded.
